The Elstree UTC

An amazing new kind of school is opening in Borehamwood, Hertfordshire

The Elstree UTC will open in September 2013 for Year 10 and Year 12 students

Specialising in entertainment technologies and crafts, electronic engineering and digital technologies

Hertfordshire is the hub for these vibrant industries that currently face an acute skills shortage

What is a UTC?

A UTC is a University Technical College. UTCs are a new concept in education, state funded and linked to Universities to provide progression and academic rigour. You can read about UTCs on the following website: www.utcolleges.org

Are you looking for:

- Hands-on experience in the film, television, theatre, visual arts and communications industries?
- A learning environment that is as much like business as school?
- Vocational qualifications as well as GCSEs and A levels?
- Opportunities to take part in projects for our partner companies?
- Practical and varied work experience?
- Opportunities for apprenticeships?
- Expertise that could lead to either an exciting first job in one of these dynamic industries or further study in higher education?

Sponsors and Partners

The Elstree UTC

University of Hertfordshire UH

Celebrating SIXTY YEARS 1952 - 2012

Hertfordshire

The Elstree UTC is sponsored by the Meller Education Trust and University of Hertfordshire.
Its many industry partners will be offering projects, work experience and apprenticeships to the students; they include Elstree Studios, the BBC, Ambassador Theatre Group, Universal Music Group, Greenhouse, Endemol and Lifecast

Location

The UTC has excellent transport links, conveniently located about 1 mile from Elstree and Borehamwood railway station at what is currently Adecco House, Elstree Way, Borehamwood, WD6 1HY. Close to the A1 and local bus services including University of Hertfordshire's (Uno) 615 route

Look out for Open events published online

www.elstreeutc.co.uk Or to find out more email info@elstreeutc.co.uk

Become a 'friend of Elstree UTC' by 'liking' our Facebook page:
www.facebook.com/TheElstreeUTC

Applications to The Elstree UTC

In September 2013 there will be 90 places for Year 10 and 140 places for Year 12
Make an application for Year 10 at www.hertsdirect.org/admissions
Applications for Year 12 should be made direct to The Elstree UTC
Allocations will be made on 1st March 2013