

Top Tips

Creating an engaging learning environment for learners with learning difficulties

1. Start with what people want
  - Check your course is what people really want
2. Make information easy
  - Use easy words
  - Talk in a way people understand
  - Make paper easy and not too much of it
3. Get the support right
  - Ask people, listen to what they say and give them the information and support they ask for
4. Make it fun
5. Value what people say
  - Make sure people know you really want to hear what they want to say
6. Empower people
  - To speak up
  - To feel safe and in control
7. Make it real
  - Will your course help people to achieve what they want to in their lives?
8. Involve people

