All Saints C of E Primary School and Nursery, Bishop's Stortford	1.17 Co-ordination schemes do not affect the rights and duties of the governing bodies of voluntary aided and foundation schools to set up and apply their own admission arrangements and oversubscription criteria, but must ensure that their own admission arrangements are compatible with, and do not undermine the co-ordination scheme for their area.	The school's criteria document states that parents must complete both the county and school's forms in order for the governing body to consider their application.	Compliant
Brookmans Park	2.6 All governing bodies are required by section 324 of the Education Act 1996 to admit to the school a child with a statement of special educational needs that names the school. This is not an oversubscription criterion. Schools must admit such children whether they have places or not.	Criterion 1 gives priority to statemented children.
Chancellor's School	2.6 All governing bodies are required by section 324 of the Education Act 1996 to admit to the school a child with a statement of special educational needs that names the school. This is not an oversubscription criterion. Schools must admit such children whether they have places or not. 2.13h The admission authorities for all maintained schools must not allocate places at a school on the basis that a sibling or other relative is a former pupil, including siblings who were on roll at the time of application but will have left by the time the child starts school.	Criterion 1 includes priority for statemented children.  Criterion 2 states that priority will be given to children with a sibling currently attending the school.	Compliant
Countess Anne C of E Primary School	2.6 All governing bodies are required by section 324 of the Education Act 1996 to admit to the school a child with a statement of special educational needs that names the school. This is not an oversubscription criterion. Schools must admit such children whether they have places or not.	Statemented children are included in the oversubscription criteria in criterion 1 where Countess Anne is specified as the parents first choice.	Compliant

St Joseph's Catholic Primary School, Waltham Cross	1.17 Co-ordination schemes do not affect the rights and duties of the governing bodies of voluntary aided and foundation schools to set up and apply their own admission arrangements and oversubscription criteria. Admission authorities do not have to determine the same or similar oversubscription criteria but must ensure that their own admission arrangements are compatible with, and do not undermine the co-ordination scheme for their area.	The school's criteria document states that if parents do not complete both the forms described that the governing body will be unable to consider the application.
St Michael's Woolmer Green C of E Primary School.	1.17 Co-ordination schemes do not affect the rights and duties of the governing bodies of voluntary aided and foundation schools to set up and apply their own admission arrangements and oversubscription criteria, but must ensure that their own admission arrangements are compatible with, and do not undermine the co-ordination scheme for their area.	The arrangements state that parents must complete and return both forms by the closing date in order to make a valid application. If not, the governing body will be unable to consider the application and the child will not gain a place.	Compliant
The John Warner School	2.6 All governing bodies are required by section 324 of the Education Act 1996 to admit to the school a child with a statement of special educational needs that names the school. This is not an oversubscription criterion. Schools must admit such children whether they have places or not.	Criterion 1 includes priority for stated children.	Compliant
