

Transcripts of tea-light safety campaign films

What's on your TV tonight?

(Music: Piano playing the nursery rhyme 'Rock a bye baby on the tree top.')

Voice: "It doesn't take much to start a fire, nor does it take much to prevent one."

"Tea-lights in foil casings must be placed in a suitable holder before being lit. Not using a suitable holder for your tea-light could be the choice between life and death: don't take the chance."

Have you got Protection?

(Music: Piano playing the nursery rhyme 'Rock a bye baby on the tree top.')

Voice: "It doesn't take much to start a fire, nor does it take much to prevent one."

"Tea-lights in foil casings must be placed in a suitable holder before being lit. Not using a suitable holder for your tea-light could be the choice between life and death: don't take the chance."