ESTABLISHMENT OF PANELS FOR COMMUNITY INFORMATION & PROTECTION SELECT COMMITTEE

The County Council on 16 May 2000 adopted a new constitution with effect from 1 August 2000. Within that constitution it was agreed that each select committee should determine whether to establish panels to consider matters which regularly require comment or investigation.

At their initial meeting on 11 October 2000 the Community Information & Protection Select Committee considered their requirements for panels and agreed the establishment of the following:

(i) Gateway Panel (8 members)

Remit:

- to comment on proposals from Cabinet in relation to the implementation and monitoring of The Gateway
- to scrutinise any matter in relation to The Gateway chosen by them or referred by the select committee

Membership:

M V Bayes, P T J Channell (Chairman), K J Coleman, A Lee, D E Lloyd, J T Metcalf, R H Smith, R J Smith

(ii) Community Fire Safety Panel (5 members)

Remit

- to comment on proposals from Cabinet in relation to community fire safety issues

- to scrutinise any matter in relation to community fire safety chosen by them or referred by the select committee

Membership:

P T J Channell, M D Colne, D J Drake (Chairman), A K Gray, B Wing

(iii) Fire Service Equal Opportunities Panel (3 members)

Remit

- to comment on proposals from Cabinet in relation to Fire and Rescue Service equal opportunities issues
- to scrutinise any matter in relation to Fire & Rescue Service equal opportunities issues chosen by them or referred by the select committee
